The hotel is in a beautiful location overlooking the splendid fjord.

Tyssedal Hotel is a magnificent building from 1913, built in “Art Nuveau” style. It is located in a stunning and dramatic landscape with two national parks as its closest neighbors.

The surroundings of our historic hotel offer the experience of both majestic nature as well as the story of hydropower development and the growth of modern Norway. From here, you have a good starting point for a hike to Trolltunga or the Folgefonna glacier. Moreover, if you prefer less physically demanding activities you can take a boat trip on the fjord or stroll through the fruit orchards in Hardanger.

Originally, Tyssedal Hotel served as the power company's hotel. Engineers and directors from all over the world came here to discuss, make important decisions and socialize.

The hotel also has a large collection of original paintings by Norwegian artists. Our famous art collection consists of paintings by Nils Bergslien but also “Garbinderen” by Christian Krogh, and pictures of Morten Muller, Hans Dahl, Anders Askvoll and more. The famous artist, Nils Bergslien, used to live at Tyssedal Hotel, painting pictures for food and accommodation. In his works, you meet trolls and fairytale creatures. Ask the staff for a guided tour!

Tyssedal Hotel is located at the Hardanger Fjord by the foot of Hardangervidda, 6 km north of Odda. You can go fishing, hiking and skiing in the surrounding area. Trolltunga trail starts in Skjeggedal located 10-minute drive from Tyssedal Hotel. Norwegian Museum of Hydropower and Industry is 400 meters away.

LILLETOPP

Location: Tyssedal

For a stunning view over Tyssedal and the Fjord, you can hike to the watchman's house at Lilletopp, in Tyssedal. At the top you will see the distribution dam, the dry tunnels and the start of the penstocks that delivered water to the turbines at NVIM. The most adventurous and demanding journey to Lilletopp is climbing the Via Ferrata, which includes hiking up metal bars drilled into the rock.

LÅTEFOSS

Location: Located in the municipality of Odda near Route 13.

The Famous twin-waterfall, Låtefoss, is the king among our waterfalls and a well-known attraction all over the world.

At the southern end of the waterfall, you might follow the path leading to where a hotel used to be. Today you can only see the ruins of the hotel estate.

We recommend to visiting this place on the day of arrival to the Hotel.

HM QUEEN SONJA'S PANORAMIC HIKING TRAIL

Location: Between Kinsarvik and Lofthus.

HM Queen Sonja opened her favourite hiking trail in Hardanger on 29th June 2013. The Queen's Trail takes you through the outskirts of the Hardangervidda mountain plateau, between Kinsarvik and Lofthus. There are no car roads allowing you to drive to the start or end of the trail, so it is a very demanding hike. From Kinsarvik you drive to Røte (by Esso gaz station). Park there and walk up to Heng, where the Queen's Trail starts (at 700 m a.s.l.). From Lofthus park by the local supermarket, walk from there to Nosi, and continue past Nosi to where the Queen's Trail starts (at 1,000 m above sea level.). The Queen's Trail is normally snow free in July and August.

FOLGEFONNA GLACIER

Location: Fonna glacier ski resort is located 19km from Jondal centre in easterly direction.

Fonna is one of Europe's premier summer ski centres located at 1200m above sea level on Folgefonna in Hardanger.

There is a range of activities in and near Folgefonna National Park such as ski slopes for the whole family, varied freestyle ski parks and cross-country trails. From the top of the ski lift (1470m) there is a spectacular view of the glacier, the Hardanger Fjord and North Sea.

The summer season at Fonna lasts from April to October 29.04 - 27.08

You can find more information at: www.visitfonna.no, tel. +47 90 08 82 78

Fonna Glacier Ski Resort is only 1 hour away from Tyssedal, by car.

THE FOLGEFONNA NATIONAL PARK WITH THE BUER GLACIER

Location: Odda

The Buer glacier is a part of the Folgefonna glacier. There is a marked trail up to the glacier. The hike through Buardalen valley requires physical fitness. FlatEarth Adventures offers guided glacier trips on the Buer glacier.

Time: 4 hrs hike

Buerbreen is an arm of Folgefonna, Norway's third largest glacier. Follow RV13 towards Røldal from Odda centre 2 km, follow signs towards Arches and drive to the car park at the farms. It takes 2 hours to go up to the glacier. The last part of the walk is steeper terrain, thus the importance of good footwear.
